

We are business owners in our community. We tune in to KLOVE all day, every day because it provides positive listening for our customers as well as our employees. There is no other station that we have found that provides this type of programming.